- ◆ Please indicate age range:
- ◆ How many weeks are you available to teach?

I am available for: (please indicate first, second and third choice)

Week 1: June 28-July 2
Week 2: July 5-9
Week 3: July 12-16
Week 4: July 19-23
Week 5: July 26-30
Week 6: Aug 2-6

These dates reflect the SBS weeks only. The dates do not include travel days. The dates for On Eagle's Wings Summer Bible Schools are determined by the communities. However, we will do our best to accommodate your first choice. Sometimes communities request Bible School outside these dates.

I am willing to arrive earlier to spend time building relationships with people in the community. Should a community desire Summer Bible School at a different time than those specified, I am willing and able to volunteer.

I am willing and available should a cancellation occur on another team.

Teaching Summer Bible School is physically challenging. Most villages have limited medical care. Please indicate if you have special medical concerns, physical or mobility limitations (details):

Do you have any special considerations or requests regarding placement?

Volunteers must sign a participation form and provide a security clearance from the appropriate agency in their state or province. Each team is also responsible for raising a $1250 (Cdn) gift to the GIGGLE Northern Travel Fund. Successful applicants will be sent the appropriate information.

I understand that acceptance of my application by On Eagle's Wings is not considered to be final until my security check, participation form, and my team's GIGGLE Northern travel Fund contribution have been received by them.

Teaching Summer Bible School is challenging. We want to be sure you fully enjoy your experience. As we consider your application we'd like to get to know you better in order to place you in a community where your skills and background are most useful. Please attempt to answer all the questions. Attach an extra page if necessary.

1. Briefly state previous teaching experience and special abilities you have. For example: music, crafts, storytelling, games, drama or puppets. _____

2. Describe any previous cross-cultural teaching experience. What was your most significant learning?

3. Please tell us your reasons for wanting to teach Summer Bible School for On Eagle's Wings. What are your goals for this experience?

4. Define what it means to be a GUEST -
a) in another culture:

b) in another person's home:

c) in another denomination:

5. Should a team have a leader? Why or why not?

6. How should a leader be chosen? What are the responsibilities of the team leader?

7. The On Eagle's Wings staff and boards have identified four Core Values. These values are the foundation for our ministry and organization. As you think about teaching Summer Bible School, briefly define or describe the following values in your own words:

a. Respect

b. Integrity

c. Stewardship

d. Ecumenism

8. A primary goal of On Eagle's Wings is to identify, encourage, and train local people as Christian Education teachers and helpers and leaders in their own community. What will you do to identify, invite and include local people on your team?

9. Getting to know people from another culture is an important part of Summer Bible School. What will you do to get to know the people in the community you serve?

10. Summer Bible School is a wonderful experience. What will you do to help team members share their experience each day and learn from each other? How will you build a sense of team with other teachers and helpers? How will you encourage and participate in personal and team devotional time?

11. Living and working in a new setting can be stressful. If there is disagreement or dissension among members of your team, what will you do to deal with the situation?

12. What is the most important asset you bring as a Summer Bible School teacher? Please explain.

13. If a SBS orientation workshop is held in your area, would you make yourself available to attend? What would be the most advantageous on the agenda of the workshop?

14. Additional Comments

Thank you for completing the application form. Your responses are helpful to the selection process and our orientation practices. Please make sure that you and your pastor have signed page 2 of the application form. If you are completing this online, please print, then fax or mail pages 1 & 2. Any questions or concerns? Please contact us.

Please return this application before February 28, 2010
